OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 4 October 1962

25X1 1. [] Richard Lehman, OCI, called concerning a request from the Department of Defense for Agency concurrence 25X1 in a statement having to do with missiles in Cuba. Subsequently, [] of OCI, discussed the matter with Mr. Houston. It appeared that the Department of Defense wanted to clear a statement which was to be given to William Bundy, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Affairs, to be used in a letter to an assistant to Representative A. Paul Kitchin.
Mr. Houston discussed the matter with Mr. Bundy. It later developed that the matter was actually a fait d'accompli and that Mr. Bundy had already briefed Mr. Kitchin on this subject. (As a member of the House Committee on Armed Services, Kitchin was present at the time General Carter briefed the combined Armed Services and Foreign Affairs Committees.)

25X1 2. [] The Director, accompanied by John S. Warner, met with Senator Richard B. Russell for approximately half an hour.
25X1 See Memorandum for the Record.

25X1 3. [] The Director, accompanied by John S. Warner, met with Representative Clarence Cannon for approximately half an hour. See Memorandum for the Record.
